

You are receiving this email because you are either a member or your business is a member of AKTI.

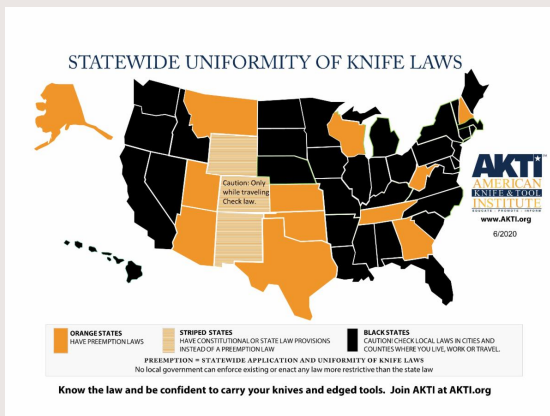

AKTI News & Legislative Updates

Greetings!

What makes a dirk different from any other knife? Why are dirks often illegal in state laws?

Statutes in thirty U.S. states, as well as the District of Columbia, impose some restriction on the possession or carry of a "dirk." Attorney and knife expert Dan Lawson examines "The Misunderstood Dirk" in an AKTI article written for the May issue of Knife Magazine.

Carry With Confidence

May 31, 2020, West Virginia joins the states that ensure there is no patchwork of knife laws to confuse law-abiding individuals.

Check out State Knife Laws and Follow Current Knife Legislation

INDUSTRY NEWS

SOG's New Brand Direction Shines Through In the Releases of Flash AT, Aegis AT and Trident AT...these new knives are poised to set a new standard as SOG moves forward with increasing the depth and breadth of its product line. More

Send Your News to include in AKTI Industry News to: communications@akti.org

Help Educate, Promote & Inform about Knives as Tools on AKTI's Social Media

SPOTLIGHT ON AKTI INDUSTRY MEMBER

Fox Knives, Italy, winner of several recent Blade Magazine awards, has been in existence since 1977. Thanks Fox Knives for your membership and generous support of AKTI.

Contribute

Monthly Knife Auction

Join or Renew

Ensuring that Americans will always be able to make, buy, sell, own, carry and use the knives and edged tools of their choice.

For more information on the American Knife & Tool Institute visit www.AKTI.org

